

forward...it's not like every year we'd have to have an A bill.

SENATOR WARNER: No, it says any initial appropriation, as a matter of fact, because we had some discussion about administrative cost and I didn't know that you had an A bill. But if you have $5,000 for administrative cost in an A bill, that would have satisfied the initial appropriation of General Fund for administrative cost, would already be...

SENATOR WESELY: Covered.

SENATOR WARNER: ...met. And all that would be left then would be in the event General Fund was to be placed in the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, and I believe that's all that would relate to because you've already...

SENATOR WESELY: I see.

SENATOR WARNER ...satisfied the initial appropriation for administration. I didn't know you had an A bill.

SENATOR WESELY: I didn't either, but (laughter), but let's play out the scenario and let me try and clarify. Let's say the bill passes, the A bill passes for administrative sight only. Next year then to actually get revenue into the trust fund itself will require an A bill, and that would have some priority status because of this.

SENATOR WARNER: In effect, an A bill, Senator, it just simply says it will be a single subject appropriation bill.

SENATOR WESELY: Right, okay. So let's say that goes through. Then two years from now it's part of...

SENATOR WARNER: This language would be part of the obsolete language bill that Revisor of Statute submits.

SENATOR WESELY: But you and I have regular bills come up in, okay.

SENATOR WARNER: I've had whole substantive law become obsolete.

SENATOR WESELY: (Laughter.) Well, thank goodness you're not obsolete and we appreciate that very much. I'd defer time to
